

I believe the commission should dismiss this proposal and focus on the some of the other Morse code proposals. A group that has an interest in retaining or increasing its membership and not the health of amateur radio writes this one. They believe that it would suffer in that area without the requirement in place.